

3. In Acts 1:6-8, apparently some of the disciples were still hoping that Jesus had come to free Israel from Roman occupation and to restore Israel to its former height of glory that King David had established in Old Testament times. But Jesus wanted them to focus their attention elsewhere. After the apostles would receive the power from on high, they would become

In the last chapter of Luke (chapter 24), Jesus ascended into heaven. Acts 1 presents this important event in more detail.

4. Read Acts 1:9-11. This event is called the Feast of the (a) _____ and it is celebrated (b) _____ days after Pascha.

5. Acts 1:15. Note that the followers now numbered how many? _____

6. Matthew 27:3-5. What happened to Judas?

7. Acts 1:21-25. With the loss of Judas, what did the apostles decide to do?

8. Acts 1:26. Whom did they choose? _____

9. Acts 1:26. How did they choose him? _____

10. Acts 1:24. Before choosing him what did they do? _____

